Achievements of Madhya Pradesh

2318. SHRI AIMADUDDIN AHMAD KHAN (DURRU): Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Madhya Pradesh has lately earned appreciation of the Planning Commission with marked improvement in respect of various social indications like literacy, health, material mortality and school enrolments;

(b) if so, the details of the social indications taken note by the Planning Commission, indicating the achievements made by the State in respect of the different indicators;

(c) whether the State Government has submitted any specific proposals to extricate the State out of the BIMARU category; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and the Central aid sought for implementation thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) and (b) In the meeting between Deputy Chairman, Planning Commission and Chief Minister, Madhya Pradesh held on 27-2-2002 for finalization of Annual Plan 2002-03 of Madhya Pradesh, the State Government was appreciated for Padhana-Badhana Andolan, Education Guarantee Scheme and other related measures taken by them, which led to improvement in literacy rate from 44.2 in 1991 to 64 in 2001.

As the decadal growth rate of population in reorganized Madhya Pradesh at 24.34 during 1991-2000 was still higher than the All India average of 21.34 and the health and demographic indices of the State, such as birth rate, death rate and infant mortality were still above the National Level , the State Govt. was impressed upon to bring about improvement in quality, content and coverage of health care facilities.

(c) No, Sir.

(d) Does not arise.
